

Fr. Julio Giulietti, SJ, Lois and Tom White with Fr. Provincial Thomas Regan, SJ, as the Whites accept the AMDG Award

On April 10, 2008 the New England Province hosted its annual Jesuit GALA raising a record $1.2 million to support the Jesuits and their ministries. Fr. Thomas J. Regan, SJ, provincial, had the honor of presenting Tom and Lois White with the Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam Award—for the greater glory of God. More than 900 friends of the Jesuits shared this evening of honor and celebration at the Boston Marriott Copley Place.

We could not have achieved such a level of success without the extraordinary leadership, committee efforts, and partnerships that took place this year. Led by Chairs Frank and Mary Mahoney, Business Chair Jonathan Sloane, Educational Chair Michael Collins, and longtime friends John McNeice and Jack Shaughnessy, we could not ask for greater grace!

The Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam Award honors those who selflessly give of themselves for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius continually spoke of the magis—doing great things for God.

Funds raised at the GALA support the lives and ministries of the New England Jesuits. Your generosity helps with:

- Preparing Jesuits for a lifetime of service
- Sharing Ignatian spirituality locally and internationally
- Caring for Jesuits in their later years
- Seeking new ways for Jesuits to be of service
