

Mr. Abidemi Bisi Oyedele is appointed new principal of Nativity Preparatory School in Jamaica Plain, Mass.

March 19, 2009 - Rev. John Wronski, SJ, Executive Director, is pleased to announce that Mr. Abidemi Bisi Oyedele has been named the new principal of Nativity Preparatory School in Jamaica Plain, Mass. Mr. Oyedele will begin his position on July 1, 2009.

Mr. Oyedele, a resident of Roxbury, Mass., holds a BA in Political Science and an M.Ed in Secondary Education from Boston College. He has served the Nativity Prep community since September 2004 as volunteer teacher, athletic director, coach, summer program director, vice-principal, and interim principal. Mr. Oyedele also served as the vice-chair of Nativity Prep's steering committee for reaccreditation by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC).

“Mr. Oyedele is dedicated to urban education and is truly a man for others committed to the students and teachers at Nativity Prep. We are very fortunate that he is willing to continue serving our school community as Principal,” said Rev. Wronski. “I am most grateful to the Nativity Prep Board of Trustees for their work on the search.”

Nativity Preparatory School is an accredited, tuition-free, Jesuit middle school for boys of all faiths from low-income families residing in Boston. Staffed by experienced teachers and dedicated volunteers who work closely with families, the school prepares students for success in high school and college. Nativity's academically challenging and highly structured environment helps students grow in a love for learning and an abiding sense of responsibility to their community. In the Jesuit tradition, the school promotes the intellectual, spiritual, social, and physical growth that inspires boys from Boston to become men for others.
