Fr. Gallagher blesses Bishop Boles.

On Saturday, June 12, 2010, the Most Reverend John P. Boles, Auxiliary Bishop Emeritus of Boston, presided at the ordination to the priesthood of George E. Collins, SJ, and Charles R. Gallagher, SJ. Rev. Robert T. Kickham, Secretary to Cardinal O'Malley, served as master of ceremonies. Family and friends attended the ordination liturgy at the Church of St. Ignatius Loyola, Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts, and celebrated at a luncheon reception held at Boston College.

Fr. Collins will spend his first summer as a priest working at St. Ignatius Church. In the fall of 2010, he will return to the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley to complete his STL degree in Christian spirituality. Fr. Gallagher will teach in the Department of History at Boston College.

“Carry out the ministry of Christ the Priest with constant joy and genuine love, attending not to your own concerns but to those of Jesus Christ.” ~ Rite of Ordination.

Jamaica

On December 30, 2009, Michael F. Davidson, SJ, and Rohan Tulloch, SJ, were ordained to the priesthood at the Cathedral of the Most Holy Trinity, Kingston, Jamaica by the Most Reverend Lawrence A. Burke, SJ, Archbishop Emeritus of Kingston, Jamaica. Also presiding was the present Archbishop of Kingston, Donald J. Reece. Family, friends and brother Jesuits from near and far attended the ceremony.

Fr. Davidson is studying for a master of education degree at Boston College. Fr. Tulloch is studying theology at Regis College, Toronto, Canada. Editor's note: Archbishop Burke died on January 24. May he rest in peace.

Archbishop Burke invokes the Holy Spirit on Fr. Davidson.

Fr. Tulloch promises obedience and respect to Archbishop Burke.
