2010 Annual Report
of the Society of Jesus of New England

And he gave some as apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ.
 ~ Ephesians 4:11-12

Stained glass window at the Parish of Saint Ignatius of Loyola, Chestnut Hill, Mass., depicting the approval of the Society of Jesus by Pope Paul III in 1540.

Saint Ignatius Loyola gathered his band of first companions during his days studying at the University of Paris, and the formal founding of the Society of Jesus came at the hands of Pope Paul III in 1540. For over four hundred years, the Society's Constitutions have inspired the followers of Ignatius and have grounded his companions in their mission:

“It is according to our vocation to travel to any part of the world where there is hope of God’s greater service and the help of souls.”

~ Rule 3, Summary of the Constitutions, 1590

These words of Saint Ignatius provided the early Jesuits unprecedented possibilities in living their vocations. There were no limits, no borders, no national boundaries, only new frontiers. Whether it was Francis Xavier in the Indies, Peter Canisius in Germany, or John Carroll in the newly-founded Americas, if there was hope of God’s glory, then Jesuits would be there.

In much more contemporary language, Pope Benedict XVI urged today’s Jesuits to renew their commitment to that mission in the 21st century:

“The Church needs you, counts on you, and continues to turn to you with confidence, particularly to reach the geographical and spiritual places where others do not reach or find it difficult to reach.”

~ Pope Benedict XVI, February 21, 2008

Address to the 35th General Congregation

There are still no limits, no borders, no national boundaries, only new frontiers, and the Jesuits take seriously these words of Saint Ignatius and Pope Benedict. Today New England Jesuits can be found all over the world: from Boston to Australia, from Worcester to Jamaica, from Fairfield to Rome. Our mission is the same – God’s service and help of souls.

Dear Friends,

We have had a remarkable year! Fr. Sheehan has explored new frontiers and his message is very clear: his job is “to care for the men.” Your generous support allows the Provincial to fulfill his responsibilities, and for that we are truly grateful.

His first year as Provincial was one of getting to know the Jesuits of the province, their colleagues and friends. Fr. Sheehan made his way to meet and get to know our friends and benefactors, and he treasures your gifts of friendship, spirit, counsel and resources.

The Jesuit GALA was an extraordinary event honoring Dick and Ann Marie Connolly with the Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam Award. Chaired by John and Mary Figge Power and an exceptional GALA Committee, the commitment and leadership displayed by our friends and benefactors brought the success of this event to a new level and enhanced and increased our lay partnerships.

The Jesuits received a significant unrestricted bequest from an unknown benefactor which reminds us of the important work of the Jesuits whose impact inspired a gift of this magnitude. Legacy giving has been and continues to be a significant source of revenue for the Jesuits and we are grateful to those who have chosen to remember the Jesuits in their estate plan.

We are also grateful for your commitment to our Ignatian programs: the Jesuit Connection and Principle Centered Leadership and Ignatian Conversations. These programs provide an opportunity to share service, prayer and Ignatian spirituality.

“Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” (Matthew 6:21) We thank you for sharing your treasured gifts with the Jesuits. We continue to honor your goodness and we will steward these gifts with care.

With deep gratitude,

Grace Cotter Regan
Executive Director of Advancement

Dear Friends,

As I begin my second year as Provincial of the New England Province of Jesuits, I certainly have a deeper understanding of these words of Saint Ignatius: “It is according to our vocation to travel to any part of the world where there is hope of God’s greater service and the help of souls.”

Over this past year, I have witnessed personally the works of the Jesuits here in our New England area. I have also visited our brother Jesuits in Jamaica, Amman, Jordan, Baghdad, Iraq, Rome, and Australia.

Ignatius desired that Jesuits have the whole world open to their vocation. Whether it is in distant lands or in our high schools, colleges, retreat houses, or parishes, Jesuits continue this mission to promote the Gospel and to help women and men grow in faith, even in a world where faith is questioned and the struggle for justice that faith entails can provoke controversy and suspicion.

New England Jesuits are found all over the world, as well as working closer to home, continuing the mission begun by St. Ignatius and entrusted to us by the Church. The work of the Society of Jesus continues generously and faithfully. That is very heartening to me, and I hope that it affirms your partnership with us for “God’s greater glory and the help of souls.”

I want to express my appreciation to you, our colleagues and benefactors, in assisting us in fulfilling our vocation. We depend on you and your generous participation in our mission. May God continue to bless and bring to fulfillment the good work He has begun in all of us!

Sincerely and gratefully,

FORMATION

Ordination

To achieve our mission of “God’s greater service and the help of souls,” the Jesuits of the New England Province added four new priests to our ranks.

In New England, Fr. George E. Collins, SJ, and Fr. Charles R. Gallagher, SJ, were ordained priests on June 12, 2010 by the Most Rev. John P. Boles, Auxiliary Bishop Emeritus of the Archdiocese of Boston, at Saint Ignatius Church, Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Fr. Collins is completing a master’s degree in spirituality at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, Calif. Fr. Gallagher is assigned to teach history at Boston College.

In Jamaica, Fr. Michael F. Davidson, SJ, and Fr. Rohan Tulloch, SJ, were ordained priests on December 30, 2009, by the Most Rev. Lawrence A. Burke, SJ, Archbishop Emeritus of Kingston, Jamaica. Also presiding was the present Archbishop of Kingston, Donald J. Reece, who is pictured left, with Frs. Davidson and Tulloch. Soon after their ordination, Archbishop Burke died in January. May he rest in peace.

Fr. Davidson is studying for a master of education degree at Boston College. Fr. Tulloch is studying theology at Regis College, Toronto, Canada.

Your prayers and gifts to the Jesuits have supported these men through their years of formation and theological education, and we are very grateful to you for your goodness.

*“Therefore, carry out the ministry of Christ the Priest with constant joy and genuine love...”
~ Rite of the Ordination of Priests*

Jubilees

Ignatian spirituality teaches that “love is shown more in deeds than in words,” so each September we gather with our families and friends to honor our brother Jesuits celebrating jubilees, remembering gratefully their service to the Church and to the Society.

On Sunday, September 13, 2009 we gathered at Boston College High School for Mass and lunch with 400 guests. Some celebrated 25, 50, 60 and 70 years as a Jesuit, others 25, 50 and 60 years as a priest. What a blessing for them, for us and for the Church!

In his homily, Fr. Charles H. Allen, SJ developed the themes of service and gratitude, and with his usual charm and insightful delivery, entertained and challenged us to continue to serve ad maiorem Dei gloriam – for the greater glory of God.

SPIRITUAL MINISTRIES

When the Spiritual Exercises were written by Saint Ignatius, he expected the experience to take roughly a month, and he divided the themes into “weeks.” However, variations and adaptations have been introduced from time to time, and the themes can be presented in individual and particular ways.

Fr. Robert Gilroy, SJ has brought his considerable talents to a unique adaptation by using the inspiration of his own artwork to help others find and deepen their relationships with God. As he describes it: “The arts have been an important way that I have learned to encounter God.” With a background in art therapy, Fr. Gilroy sees the integration of art and the Spiritual Exercises as a natural progression.

A Contemplation to Obtain Divine Love. During the fourth “week” of the Spiritual Exercises, retreatants contemplate scenes from the Resurrection and experience joy through a new awareness of who Jesus is. While directing the

“By sending us to ‘those physical and spiritual places which others do not reach or have difficulty reaching,’ the Pope entrusts to us the task to ‘build bridges of understanding and dialogue.’”

~ Degrees of GC35

19th Annotation, Fr. Gilroy painted this image of a glorified Christ and his body merging with the mission Church.

The Annunciation. During the second “week” of the Spiritual Exercises, retreatants are invited to contemplate the life of Jesus and respond to the call of Christ to work for the coming of the Kingdom. Fr. Gilroy painted the Annunciation of the angel appearing to Mary while he was directing a 30-day retreat at Eastern Point Retreat House for the first time.

Currently on the staff of the Campion Renewal Center in Weston, Mass., the 51-year-old Jesuit offers spiritual direction to individuals as well as traditional and art-centered retreats and workshops.

More of his artwork can be viewed at: www.prayerwindows.com. For information about upcoming Sacred Images retreats, visit: www.campioncenter.org.

CARE OF OUR BROTHERS

Among the many responsibilities of the Provincial is “the care of the men,” with special concern for the elderly and the infirm.

In the New England Province, this care and concern for Jesuits in their twilight years takes place in a unique way at Campion Center in Weston, Mass. The Provincial, Fr. Myles Sheehan, SJ, has described it as a “powerhouse of prayer and support” for the province.

“You have given everything to me. To you, O Lord, I return it.”

~St. Ignatius Loyola

For the past six years, the person directly responsible for the Jesuits at Campion Center has been Fr. Paul D. Holland, SJ, the Rector of the Jesuit community there. During the summer of 2010, he completed his six-year term and has now been assigned as Rector of the Jesuit community at Fairfield University and Prep, Fairfield, Conn.

Campion Center is more than just a building; it is a vibrant Jesuit community: skilled nursing care, assisted living, Jesuits in active ministry and a retreat and renewal center as well as a cemetery, the final resting place for our many brothers.

As Dr. David Hackett, Campion's Medical Director, commented, "Campion is a community, not an institution. Over the years I have been inspired by how the Jesuits on the residential floors are generous in their emotional support to Jesuits in the skilled floors."

Certainly your goodness to the New England Province is reflected in the Jesuits' quality of life in their advancing years, and for that we are very grateful!

GALA 2010

Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam Award

As an opportunity to highlight the ministries of the Jesuits – and to honor those who share our values and ideals – the Jesuit GALA, the centerpiece of the New England Province’s advancement efforts for the past ten years, was held at the Boston Marriott Copley Place on April 15, 2010.

Over 1,200 guests gathered to raise more than $1.25 million in support of the Jesuits and our works. In honoring Dick and Ann Marie Connolly for lives of service in the Jesuit tradition, we were able to put human faces on the Ignatian vision of educating “men and women for others.”

We are grateful to those listed here for their generous gifts which make our lives and ministries possible.

We have made every effort to ensure the accuracy of these listings, but if you notice an error, please let us know by mail, email, or phone.

The Arrupe Society, named in memory of Fr. Pedro Arrupe, SJ, the dynamic and charismatic leader of the worldwide Jesuits from 1965 until 1983, is comprised of our friends who have made a planned gift to the Jesuits. Perhaps it is a remembrance in their will, a charitable remainder trust, a charitable gift annuity or even an insurance policy.

It is a gift that continues giving for many years to come. A planned gift provides the resources to continue the support for current needs of Jesuits, but it also looks to the future to plan for those programs and personnel who will minister to God's people well into the twenty-first century.

During fiscal year 2009-2010, The New England Province has been the very grateful recipient of over $2.9 million from the estates of the following donors:

June A. Callahan
Catherine Mellon Dowd
Mary L. Gallant

Mary T. Kowalker
Helen E. Larkin
Dorothy C. O'Brien

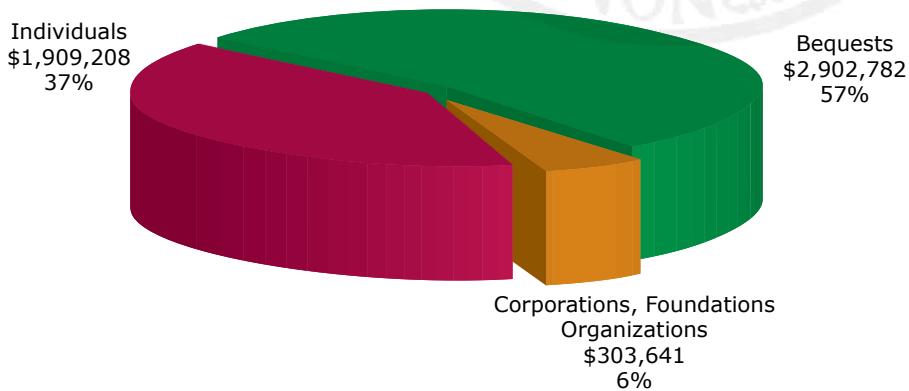

Mary J. Ryan
Rose A. Gorman
